Weekend Busy For City Police

Police in Cameron spent a busy weekend with a burglary plus an assortment of other law breakers.

A shotgun, clothing, and other small items were stolen from a house in Cameron Friday while the owner was at work. Police arrested Billy Joe Martin of Cameron in connection with the daylight thefts.

Martin was charged with burglary in Milam County Court and the stolen items were recovered.

Officers handled two cases of minors in possession of alcoholic beverages, and one case of driving while intoxicated.

A charge of unlawful possession of a dangerous drug was filed in Milam County Court against Edward Desi Ware, a soldier from Fort Hood, following his arrest by police on Sunday.

Reports said Ware was in a car with another Fort Hood soldier. A girl and a boy, both minors, were also in the car. The car was stopped following a complaint about a beer bottle being thrown from the window.

Charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor were filed in City Court against six men from Fort Hood. All were released on bond.

Two runaway teenage girls who were reported missing from their homes in Cameron on Monday were located in Killeen that night, Police Chief John Shearin said. He added that there is a growing problem in the city involving 13- to 15-year old girls being picked up by soldiers.

Two minor traffic accidents in the city were also reported over the weekend, with no injuries in either accident.

City Changes Plans For Street Program

J. B. Earle To Resign Supt. Post

City Council agreed Tuesday evening to postpone plans for a street assessment program and concentrate on the program of maintenance and improvement recommended by Council committee.

Decision came at the end of a regular meeting during which Streets Supt. J. B. Earle's resignation was accepted by the four Councilmen present. Councilman R. W. Wells was absent.

Earle submitted a letter to the Council and Mayor E. A. Perrin requesting a two-months leave of absence in April and May. The request was denied and Earle offered his resignation, to be effective April 1.

A motion offering Earle two weeks vacation and denying the request for leave of absence was made by Councilman Bob Clark and was passed. Earle asked that the letter be accepted as his resignation, and Councilman Lester Turner moved for acceptance.

The letter did not state reasons for the request for leave of absence. Earle has served as streets superintendent for about 11 years.

Plans for the paving of additional streets on an assessment basis were started in October, 1969, with actual work to start this spring.

Demand on the City budget's street funds, some unexpected, have caused the budget to run over, according to estimates by City officials in February.

In other business, the Council approved plans for a proposed subdivision south of the Sunset Terrace Addition. Although the subdivision will be outside city limits, Council approval was required.

Discussed sections of the city's building code with a local maintenance man, concerning requirements for electrical work.

Accepted payments from property owners for their share in paving East 16th Street.

Heard a request for a parking permit from a local drugstore owner. Council noted that similar requests had been denied.

Discussed the large number of complaints about dogs and questions about the city's leash law. There is no dogcatcher working for the city now, and enforcement of the law is difficult in view of the city's present manpower shortage. City Atty. Ed Magre said property owners have recourse by filing a complaint against the dog's owner.

"RACING SLICKS" are tied on by Mrs. Dean Trube, busy mother of five, in preparation for Cameron Schools open house tonight. Parents with children in all four schools must move pretty quickly to cover visits to classrooms, science fair, and other features planned for visitors.

Lutherans Host Service Open House At Schools Tonight

Rev. Gary Mayer, pastor of Peace Lutheran Church, Rockdale, will be guest speaker for the World Day of Prayer observance in Cameron.

The service, sponsored locally by Church Women United, will be at 2:30 p.m. Friday at Abiding Savior Lutheran Church, 12th and Jackson.

Rev. Mayer is a native of Michigan and a graduate of Lutheran Seminary, Columbus, Ohio. He has been pastor of Peace Lutheran Church in Rockdale since September 1968.

Theme for the worldwide fellowship is "Take Courage."

Mrs. Tom Corley will present special music for the service.

Hundreds of parents and friends are expected to visit Cameron schools tonight during Annual Open House that marks Public Schools Week.

Hours for the open house are 6 until 8 p.m. Classrooms at Ben Milam, Ada Henderson, Cameron Junior High, and Yoe High will be open, with teachers and students hosting visitors.

At Yoe High, the science fair exhibits will be on display in the third floor science department and second floor library. Exhibits will be judged between 1 and 4 p.m. on Thursday.

The annual high school science fair draws entries in biological, mathematics, and physical science divisions.

Other schools in the Milam area are observing the week with all-week classroom visiting and other activities.

Milano PTA will meet tonight at 7 in the high school building. Cameron PTA will meet at 8 p.m. to elect officers. The meeting will be held at Ben Milam School.

Lions Gov. To Speak

Charlie P. Briggs, III, of Calvert, Governor of District 2-S3, Lions International will speak to the Cameron Evening Lions Club at its regular meeting, 6:30 p.m. Thursday (today), at Geller's Smokehouse.

Briggs has been an active member of the Calvert Lions Club, a Zone Chairman, District Governor, District Tail Twister and Co-Chairman of the Membership Development and Retention committee for his district.

He was elected District Governor in 1969 and installed during the International Convention held in Tokyo, Japan, in July.

To Subscribe For Both Heralds . . .

104 Heralds cost just $5.50 if you live in Milam County -- $6.50 outside the county. If your present subscription is for the Thursday Herald only, you pay a pro-rata share of the balance on it, and add $2 for the Weekend Herald. Thus your subscription to both papers will be due on one date.

FOR EXAMPLE: If your Thursday Herald is paid to August, 1970, you pay an additional $2.05 and the $2 for the Weekend Herald, a total of $4.05. For out of the county the total would be $1 more. This pays your subscription up through February, 1970 for both papers. Call 697-6671 for further information.

Comment has been favorable on The Herald's introduction of color the past weekend edition. Five Cameron stores saw the obvious advantages of color and ran early week ads. Despite rains, it should have been helpful.

It was our first color, a feature you shall see much more of in the next few months.

Distribution of The Herald is now going into more homes and businesses than any time in its history, even more than in the early 20th century when Milam County had almost twice the population.

Your comments are favorable. We are dramatizing these changes through comments in this column because it will be a long time before major changes such as frequency of publication, method of production and use of color will come so close together.

Technical improvements will abound. We are now contemplating a different format in the news columns, a different treatment of our pictures. It is something to anticipate.

HENSON FILES FOR ROGERS SCHOOL BOARD

Darrell Henson of Route 2, Temple has filed as a candidate for the office of school trustee to serve if elected for a three-year term in the Rogers Independent School District.

Henson, who received his schooling at Stringtown, has lived with his wife Mary and their five children here for the past 15 years.

Henson is a farmer and a conservation contractor. March 4th was the deadline for filing for trustee.

Diboll Drops Yoe, 60-40 At Regional

The Bi-district champion Yoemen averaged 19 percent from the field Saturday afternoon to yield to a rangy Diboll Jumping Jacks 60-40 at Brenham's Blinn College Gym.

Mack Mitchell, the touted 230-pound, 6 foot, 8 inch giant almost went scoreless in the first half, but cleared 15 points in the second half to pace the Jacks' edge.

Willie White led the Yoemen with 20 points and game point getters, including nine free throws in the first half. Mitchell and two other Jacks fouled out early in the fourth quarter.

White and forward John Steamer contained Mitchell the first half while Steamer's shooting eye, like the rest of the team's, was off.

Brashear was second high for the Yoemen with 9 points.

The Jacks' Greg Drake hit 17 points, often from outside in the first half while Kelvin Phipps turned inside shots for 13 total points.

Steamer hit Cameron's first field goal and next to the last. But the Jacks' outside average already had a 14-7 average as the first quarter developed.

The Yoemen averaged about 16 percent from the field in the first half, scoring only four field goals. They hit 11 for the game.

A 15-to-20 point lead from the second quarter on was too much for the Yoemen to overcome in the final quarter, when Mitchell and two other Jacks starters left the game on fouls.

White fouled out late in the final quarter after hitting 12 foul shots and four field goals. Brashear hit three from outside and three charities.

Cameron ended the season with a 19-12 record. Diboll going on to lose to Kountze in the regional finals for a 28-11 season.

Brashear averaged 17.3 points a game. Steamer 12 and White 9.7, followed by Richardson with 6.1, and Ken McLerran and Dean Prokisch with 5-point averages. It is the most successful basketball team in recent Yoe High School history.

Texas Department of Public Safety patrolmen from Rockdale investigated the accident. Patrolman Bob Eason said the soldiers' car was traveling at high speed on the wrong side of the highway when the collision occurred.

Hughen swerved his car, attempting to avoid the collision, and it was struck on the right side and front.

Hughen was taken to Newton Hospital at Cameron and transferred to the Temple Veterans Hospital, where he is being treated for a broken leg and facial cuts. His condition was described as satisfactory.

Whatley was transferred from Newton to Darnell Army Hospital at Fort Hood. His condition was not available at presstime. Hughen is a student at Temple Junior College.

Both vehicles were demolished in the accident.

Surviving are his wife of Lott; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bone of Lott; three brothers, James E. Bone and Charles A. Bone, both of Lott, and Ronnie W. Bone of Norfolk, Va.; and a sister, Mrs. Willroy Pittrucha of Holland.

FIREMEN ANSWER CALL

Cameron volunteer firemen responded to a call about 1 p.m. Monday to a pickup truck on fire near Keith's Minimex grocery store on South Crockett St. Damage to the vehicle's motor was reported.

Sun's Eclipse To Be Seen Here

Central Texans will have a rare view of the eclipse of the sun about 12:30 p.m. Saturday. It is considered one of the most magnificent of natural phenomena.

The total eclipse is expected to last about 3 minutes, but Central Texas observers should begin their watch at about 12 noon.

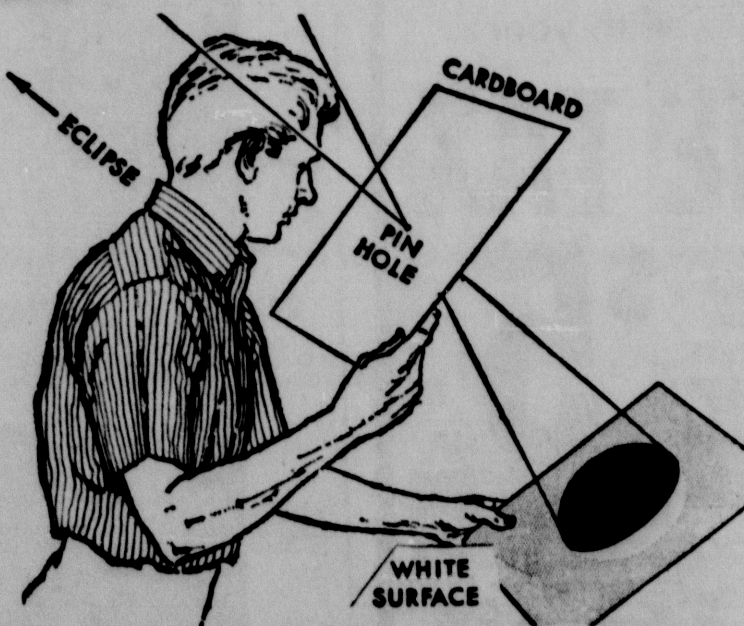

Observers will begin to notice darkness about ten minutes before the eclipse with light coming from the edge of the sun. This light will be much altered in quality, so that sky and landscape take on strange colors. The temperature falls, sometimes dew appears, and animals are usually frightened.

In the distant horizon, the moon's shadow is sometimes seen quite distinctly, much like a swiftly approaching, heavy thunderstorm. The last disappearing shred of sun is often broken up by the moon's irregularities into specks called 'Baily's beads.'

Just before the sun is blotted out, a diamond ring like shape will appear. Then at the moment of eclipse, the 'corona' of the sun will appear as a faint yellow ball with a dark splotch at one edge if the eclipse has started.

Polaroid film is not recommended.

In the 1963 eclipse, view in Maine and parts of Alaska, 247 cases of visual damage from direct observation of the eclipse were reported by ophthalmologists.

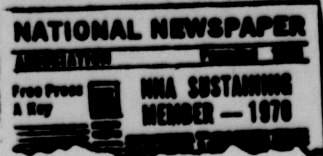

TO WATCH ECLIPSE: Take two pieces of white cardboard, make a pinhole in one and with the sun at your back, focus the eclipse through the pinhole board onto the second board. The size of the image can be changed by altering the distance between cardboards. Never look at the eclipse through the pinhole.

Good School Things Happen . . .

This is mid-Public School Week.

It is a time for observing what public school systems in Cameron and throughout the Milam area are accomplishing and what they need to do.

The Cameron system has good morale going for it, improvement of existing facilities as thus far as possible. The CISD faces some time in the future expanding building needs on the Yoe Campus.

Maintenance, classroom equipment, sports performance, teaching technics are improved throughout this system and others in the Milam area.

For this, we can be proud.

But the competition of other schools for our students, whether college bound and technology bound or trade bound, is considerable. Stress on excellence in their work never was greater. Perhaps too great.

But the competition is there, and each district, like CISD, must acknowledge it and meet it. We can no more withdraw from educational competition than we can shut off communication with the rest of Texas, trying to build a Great Wall around the county or a school district.

There is isolationist example in our past and vestiges linger, hopefully for some return.

Public School Week is a good time for school parents, grandparents and patrons without school-age offspring to see what this enormous emphasis on education is doing in Cameron and Rogers and Buckholts, Milano, Rosebud and all the other schools in this area.

Many good things are happening.

Conspiracy Trial Popular . . .

Following the debate on the Chicago conspiracy trial, one is likely to get the impression that the law under which the convicted five were tried was a brainchild of conservatives.

It might have been inspired by conservatives, but that is not what turned the idea into a law. It became law because President Lyndon Johnson signed it after it was enacted by an overwhelming vote in both the House and the Senate.

In the Senate, for example, 82 out of the 100 members voted for the so-called Rap Brown amendment to the 1968 Civil Rights Act. Supporters included J. William Fulbright, Mike Mansfield, George McGovern, Edmund Muskie, Abraham Ribicoff, Gaylord Nelson, Claiborne Pell, Albert Gore, Joseph Tydings, Frank Church, Birch Bayh, Ralph Yarborough, Joseph Clark and Ernest Gruening.

Can these men be described as politically conservative? Or did they vote for the amendment because, regardless of ideology, they thought that threats against the political conventions in 1968 called for the enactment of such a law?

Officials Outline Plans To Combat Drug Abuse

By Vern Sanford

AUSTIN

Top Texas officials have agreed on general outlines of a plan to combat the rising problem of drug abuse.

Gov. Preston Smith, Lt. Gov. Ben Barnes, Atty. Gen. Crawford C. Martin and House Speaker Gus Mutscher are united in a statewide concentration of effort. Plan was announced after a meeting of the four in Smith's office last week. Texas Justice Council will serve as coordinator.

Coordinated law enforcement action will first be called on to try and dry up the sources of dangerous drugs.

Top priority is given a "total education" campaign for youth, adults, teachers and law enforcement personnel on drug dangers and possible solutions to the problem.

Task forces will be named to develop effective concepts and action programs in enforcement and education.

Leaders agreed on this immediate-action program:

- One-day seminars for Texas' law officers and prosecutors.
- Exchange of vital information with Mexico.
- Assistance through the Justice Council to implement school education.
- Review of successful narcotics programs in other states.
- Greater assistance to local enforcement and prosecuting agencies in evidence analysis.
- Gathering of statistics in major cities on drug-related crime.
- Creation of a model drug information office.

Narcotics strike forces will include local, state and federal personnel, military manpower and use of helicopter patrols along the Rio Grande.

Another task force will attempt to explore causes of drug use and to evaluate proposed research and rehabilitation programs as well as to implement educational programs in schools.

State officials will meet here

March 13 with aides to U.S. Atty. Gen. John Mitchell. They will explore federal support possible under remedial programs and the uniform controlled dangerous substances act now before congress.

TOLL ROADS PROPOSED

In a surprise session with the State Highway Commission, Texas Turnpike Authority proposed that preliminary studies be made for the development of a massive toll road network estimated to cost more than $135 million.

Last year the Legislature authorized the agency, subject to the Highway Department's permission, to spend money for investigating the feasibility of additional pay-road projects.

Turnpike Authority asked the Commission to let it make exploratory studies of the following projects:

- An 83-mile, $50 million mid-Texas turnpike from Hillsboro to Interstate 45 near Centerville, to provide a direct freeway from Dallas-Fort Worth to Houston-Beaumont areas.
- A 20-mile, $40 million Dallas-Fort Worth-Trinity turnpike connecting Dallas and Fort Worth parallel to the present turnpike by way of the projected Greater Southwest International airport between the two cities.
- An 8.8 mile, $18 million airport tollway connecting LBJ Freeway in Dallas to the new airport estimated for completion in 1973.
- A $20 million toll road in San Antonio to follow the route of long-delayed U.S. 281 North Expressway.
- A 1.2 mile, $7 million toll bridge across Mountain Creek Lake in Dallas County connecting the Oak Cliff and Arlington areas.
- A turnpike from downtown Houston to Intercontinental Airport and possibly other facilities in the state's largest city.

Preliminary studies will take six to nine months. Feasibility surveys may follow where reasonable promise is shown for the projects.

WELFARE CRISIS

Welfare Board cancelled its April 1 cuts in aid to needy families and medical assistance after Governor Smith ordered $13.5 million in medical school building funds shifted to welfare.

Deputy Welfare Commissioner Herbert Wilson said the fund transfusion will run programs at present levels through August and maybe longer.

Cuts of 12 per cent in Aid to Families With Dependent Children and 20 per cent in Medicaid had been ordered for April 1. In ordering the transfer to make this reduction unnecessary, Smith also directed strengthening of the welfare program administration and a step-up in rehabilitation efforts.

PAYMENTS MADE

A total of 131 persons received $53,811 in retroactive welfare payments under terms of a San Antonio federal court order invalidating the one-year state residence requirement.

OLD PHILOSOPHER

Dear editor:

According to an article I read in a newspaper last night which I'd picked up in town earlier in the day while I was trying to find a good used battery for my car which I'm tired of parking on a hill so I can start the motor without much pushing, oh it's all right in dry weather but in wet weather you wind up at the bottom of the hill with the motor running but the wheels spinning, my pasture isn't paved, at any rate, according to this article, some world experts on economics have come up with a proposal to the United Nations on solving the problems of poor countries.

They propose a world-wide tax on certain luxury items, with the money then to be distributed to poor nations. They said this tax would apply to those goods "the possession of which is indicative of the attainment of a relatively high standard of living by the purchaser."

I read the list of things and included are television sets and automobiles.

I'm afraid those world-wide economic experts haven't looked beyond the driveway or the outside antenna if they believe that owning a car or a T.V. set is proof you've reached a relatively high standard of living.

It seems to me they ought to try to figure out some other standard, say like owning a private swimming pool and a personal airplane, although you'd find if you checked closely enough a good many of those are mortgaged.

Cars and television sets aren't luxury items in this country. Bread and meat are.

I'm against the United Nations' taxing my car and television set but I'll meet them half way. They can tax my airplane as soon as I get one.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Rising Prices Continue To Reduce Dollar Power

WASHINGTON

The purchasing power of the Nation's rank-and-file workers declined for the fourth consecutive month in January, the U.S. Department of Labor's Bureau of Labor Statistics has reported. The decline resulted from the usual January drop in average weekly hours and a further rise in consumer prices.

Gross weekly earnings of production and nonsupervisory workers dropped 81 cents between December and January, to $116.81.

The over-the-month decline was attributable to a half hour reduction in the average workweek, which more than offset a 2-cent gain in average hourly earnings. After adjustment for price increases, gross weekly earnings were 1.1 percent below the December level and 0.2 percent below a year ago.

Spensible earnings, or after-tax pay, were higher in January, reflecting changes in federal income taxes incorporated in the 1970 Tax Reform Act.

Take-home pay for the worker with three dependents increased 22 cents, to $102.52. The increase for the single worker amounted to 78 cents, raising the net pay for the week to $93.95.

Compared to January 1969, spendable earnings were up $5.84, or 6.0 percent, for the worker with three dependents and $6.19, or 7.1 percent, for the single worker.

Rising prices continued to erode gains in take-home pay in January. For the worker with three dependents, real spendable earnings — take-home pay expressed in 1957-59 dollars to reflect consumer price changes — decreased by 13 cents, to $77.78.

Real earnings for the worker with three dependents were 0.2 percent below a year ago and 2.3 percent below the high of September 1968. Real earnings for the worker with three dependents have remained below year-ago levels for 12 months in a row. For the single worker, real earnings were 0.5 percent above their December levels and 0.8 percent above a year ago; these small increases reflected the greater comparative tax benefits for single persons resulting from the 1970 tax changes.

ATTORNEY GENERAL RULES

Fraternal and veterans organizations operating clubs and serving alcoholic beverages are subject to sales tax as ultimate consumers for mix, beverage, ice or set-ups, says Attorney General Martin in a new opinion. However, Martin said, the "makings" are not subject to further sales tax when incorporated into alcoholic beverage served to guests and members.

In other recent opinions, Martin concluded that:

• Amarillo Mayor J. Ernest Stroud did not automatically resign as mayor when he announced his candidacy for Randall County Judge.

• Alcoholic Beverage Commission does not have authority to construct a revenue station at Eagle Pass from appropriated funds.

• Board of Insurance is authorized to permit continuance of above-ground storage tanks for flammable liquids at retail service stations where they were in service prior to last September 1 and where they conform to safety standards.

Local CTA To Hear Rep. Kubiak

"The Price of Education" will be the topic of an address delivered to the Cameron Classroom Teachers Association by State Rep. Dan Kubiak of Falls, Milam and Robertson Counties.

The meeting will be at the Yoe High School library at 4 p.m. Monday, March 9.

In his remarks, Rep. Kubiak will outline the total cost of education to the State of Texas and the effects of the Foundation Program expansion.

Rep. Kubiak, who taught school six years before becoming a legislator, is a member of the House Public Education Committee and the School District Committee.

Watson On New State Committee

LT. Gov. Ben Barnes today announced the appointment of five Senators to a Senate Interim Committee on Corporate Farming, Livestock Feeding and Ranching Operations in Texas. Barnes named Senators Charles Herring of Austin; Jack Hightower of Vernon; Bill Patman of Ganado; Murray Wilson of Mart and Charles Watson of Lufkin to the committee.

Created by S.R. 815, the committee will study corporate farming, livestock feeding and ranching operations and make recommendations of any legislation needed to the 62nd Legislature meeting in January, 1971. "The agribusiness industry in Texas represents an average of more than $6 billion annually to the Texas economy and it is vitally important that these phases of agriculture be studied, I am confident that this committee will present meaningful suggestions to the next legislative session," said Barnes.

The five citizen appointees to be announced by Governor Preston Smith have not been named.

In Texas, foreign matter on the roadway contributed to 21 fatal and 1,068 non-fatal accidents last year. Arrests for littering have risen steadily, and the conviction rate has been 95 per cent for the past two years.

Tree, Garden Care Is Vital

By J. D. Moore

It's no secret - we can grow nice, clean, insect free peaches and other fruit in Milam county.

First, you must be dedicated. The right things must be done at the right time. Fruit and nut trees should have had the dormant oil spray by now. However, the oil spray may be applied up until leaves and blooms appear.

Fertilize trees by using a balanced fertilizer at the rate of one pound of fertilizer to each inch diameter of the tree trunk. A spray schedule is available at the county agents office.

Nematode control in gardens - Nematodes are tiny worms that attack the roots of tomatoes and other vegetables causing extensive damage.

Commercial granules are available at feed and seed stores. Directions recommend the use of two ounces of the granules per 20 feet of row.

This material should be applied two or three weeks prior to planting the vegetables or setting out started plants. Be sure to follow instructions on the label.

Plan a disease and insect control program - Vegetable gardens, fruit orchards and pecan trees must be protected from diseases and insects.

A planned weekly application of a fungicide and insecticide is necessary to control most of the leaf diseases. However, some of the wilts in tomatoes are difficult to control.

Such practices as rotation of the crop where practical is advisable.

A general fungicide such as Zineb or dithane Z-78 may be combined with an insecticide such as Diazinon at the rate of one tablespoon of each to one gallon of water for most vegetables as well as fruit trees.

It is important to make weekly applications of these materials.

HEIFERS STUDIED

Texas A&M animal scientists have a program underway at the East Texas Research and Extension Center near Overton to study the effects of energy and phosphorus on beef cattle reproduction.

EXAMINE, COLLECT, TREAT

These watchwords are still important to stockmen as the battle against screwworms continues.

TOWN and COUNTRY

Artificial Breeding Of Beef Cows Gains Favor

Is artificial insemination (AI) profitable for the beef cattle producer?

Figures released by John R. Beverly, Texas A&M Extension animal reproduction specialist, seem to indicate that AI is not only feasible but also profitable for the beef producer.

Factors such as type of semen used, existing facilities and availability of extra labor can cause variations in cost. However, the best approximation of cost comes from a recent survey of 43 ranchers presently using AI. These ranchers are either using only AI or using it in conjunction with a natural breeding program, Beverly said.

Total average cost for each AI calf born on these ranches was $7.92, while total average cost of a calf born from natural breeding was $9.78.

"The cost range when using AI was $4 to $19," Beverly said. "The range showed a spread of $5 to $18 when using natural breeding."

According to Beverly, research reports indicate a cost of $8.84 a calf when the sire costs $565 with a $1.12 per calf additional cost for each increase of $100 in bull cost.

Only four of the 43 ranchers used technicians to artificially inseminate their cows, Beverly continued. The other ranchers did their own insemination or utilized existing personnel which seems to be the most practical and popular concept, he said.

"All recent reports show that artificial insemination equals and in some cases, under good management, even exceeds the conception rates obtained through natural breeding," Beverly said. "The average conception rate for both is 70%."

The advantage of breeding artificially is that the rancher can utilize the service of a $30-$35,000 bull, which would be economically impossible with natural insemination, he explained.

"A bull can conceive only about 200 calves by natural service in a year," Beverly said. "However, with the use of AI a bull can produce approximately 5,000 calves in the same period."

Nearly all companies selling semen now offer schools for training producers and include instruction in semen handling, the insemination technique and thorough explanations on initiating AI programs, he said.

Rotation Of Crops Advised

Crop rotation in the Texas Blacklands can give increased grain sorghum yields and fewer weeds, insect and disease problems, reports Dr. Lloyd Fenn, Texas A&M University researcher.

"Unless a suitable crop rotational system is used, the yield potential of Blackland soils is not likely to be reached," Fenn said. For example, fertilizers can be more efficiently used when grain sorghum follows a small grain crop such as oats.

Fenn, a soil scientist for the Texas A&M Research Center at McGregor, said their tests have revealed that continuous cropping of grain sorghum required a fertilizer treatment of 60-40-0 pounds of nitrogen, phosphorus and potash, respectively, to produce maximum yields.

Grain sorghum which followed oats required a treatment of only 40-20-0 to do the same job. Top yields of grain sorghum grown after a small grain crop were, at least, 200 pounds per acre more than yields from continuous cropping.

"In good years like 1968, fertilizer and yield differences can be even greater," Fenn said. Also accompanying the use of a suitable crop rotation are other dollar-saving factors such as fewer weeds, insects and disease problems, he added.

Cotton-oats-grain sorghum is a popular crop rotation system, but others are equally as good, the soil scientist said. To realize maximum grain sorghum yields, Fenn recommends that an appropriate crop rotation system be practiced.

ASCS News

By Alva E. Sanders

Farmers participating in the feed grain, wheat, or cotton programs can help assure themselves of program payments in July or August by complying with the program provisions just as soon as time, weather, and crop growth allow.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture this year has set mid-August as the target date for completion of 1970 farm program payments to participating producers in the feed grain, wheat, and cotton programs.

Sign-up for the farm programs is now under way at the Milam County ASCS Office and will continue through March 20.

Eligible producers are urged to sign up early for the programs and also to request measurement service when they sign up if they have not already done so.

Measurement service is offered at cost by the County Office and provides assurance to producers that they are in compliance with the programs if they go exactly by the measurements.

Before the County ASCS Office can begin processing a payment to a producer, he must certify that he has complied with all the program provisions. This includes a report of acreages devoted to the crops and land uses involved.

Producers are urged to certify compliance as soon as they can, but under no circumstances should they do so until they know they have met the program provisions. Once a farmer has certified he is in compliance with a program -- feed grain, wheat, or cotton -- his farm may be checked at any time. If he is not in compliance, he may lose some or all of his farm payments.

Farmers are reminded that earning farm program payments is a three-step process:

1. Signing up to participate and agreeing to comply with program provisions. Farmers may sign up at the County ASCS Office Monday through Friday, through March 20.

2. Complying with program provisions. In general, this means seeing that the crop and land use acreage requirements have been met. The crop must be planted and cared for in a workmanlike manner. Complete details on program compliance are available at the County ASCS Office.

3. Certifying compliance with program provisions. Producers who have complied with the program provisions may come in to the County Office at any time to certify. Once they have certified, processing of their farm payment will begin. Final date for certification in Milam County for the farm programs is July 1, 1970. The final date to certify planted wheat acreage is May 1, 1970.

By Jane Callaway

I want to join all of you in congratulating our Yoe High Basketball Team and Coach Murdoch, Bi-District Champions! We have had quite a year. I know you are proud and we are proud of you. The fans at all the games helped a lot.

Mrs. Zajicek, the name is Don!

Last Thursday and Friday were National Honor Society Days. The new members were "fully initiated"—Sandra Dusek, Linda Jones, Kathryn Kahler, Jo Ann Owen, Harry Perrin, Mike Zelisko, Kathy Fox, Kathy Kubes and Jan Stewart. They had to come to school wearing slacks, a sweatshirt and tennis shoes. The shirt had letters on the back spelling NHS new member backward. Oh, yes, they also carried a sign. Do you all feel like a real NHS member now? Friday night was the big banquet—Rev. Wirt Skinner was the speaker. Miss Rosson is the sponsor. All the work paid off in a number one success.

Somewhat, Carolyn, it seems to work better if your plate doesn't get too close to the edge of the table—but we all needed a "funny" about then, I guess.

Remember this is Public Schools Week. Be sure you come by all our schools on Thursday for Open House and the Science Fair at Yoe High. The faculty and students need your support—a good school is one of the most important things in any community.

We are all working like mad on projects for the Science Fair. Mrs. Nance is the "guiding light" for all this—that's why it is always so good. Mr. Johns (he's a math genius) directs the math projects. They must have days of doubting the worth of all the effort. But it is!

Here's a good one I found and it might help us as we move on to some place.

How To Tell a Winner From a Loser

1. A winner says, "Let's find out"; a loser says, "Nobody knows."
2. When a winner makes a mistake, he says, "I was wrong"; when a loser makes a mistake, he says, "It wasn't my fault."
3. A winner goes through a problem; a loser goes around it, and never gets past it.
4. A winner makes commitments; a loser makes promises.

MRS. DONALD RIVERS

5. A winner says, "I'm good, but not as good as I ought to be"; a loser says, "I'm not as bad as a lot of other people."
6. A winner tries to learn from those who are superior to him; a loser tries to tear down those who are superior to him.
7. A winner says, "There ought to be a better way to do it"; a loser says, "That's the way it's always been done."

MARCH 31 IS DEADLINE FOR BOAT RENEWALS

AUSTIN

Boat owners have until March 31 to renew their boat registrations, according to George Cook, director of Water Safety Services for the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department.

Cook says the last of the renewal notices were mailed to boat owners Feb. 23.

Boat owners with registered boats who failed to get a renewal notice should write Water Safety Services, Texas Parks and Wildlife Department, John H. Reagan State Office Building, Austin, Texas 78701.

New boats may be registered at any of the Department's district or regional offices where they will be assigned a certificate of number.

With this in mind, Mr. Wilson declared that should he be elected Chairman it is his intention and he so pledges himself to personally draw no compensation whatsoever for his time and effort; and to keep the expenditures required to be made in the conduct of democratic primary elections at an absolute minimum.

Based on the compensation paid the Chairman the past election year this would represent a saving to each Democratic candidate of approximately 18% of his or her filing fee.
